

PRESS RELEASE

September 29, 2021

For Immediate Release

The Village of Ashcroft will be observing the second annual National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on September 30, 2022.

The Village of Ashcroft acknowledges the painful history of residential schools, and the importance of recognizing this history to further reconciliation. The Village of Ashcroft is committed to reconciliation, and will continue to grow its relationships with its First Nations partners.

This year, the Village will be flying the “Every Child Matters” flag on the flagpole at the Old Fire Hall.
